TRENCH PILGRIMS

In 1099 the gates of Hell were opened

In the 800 years since, they have been called upon, the most faithful of men and women across the globe. They receive glimpses of divine mysteries and revelations bestowed upon them by messengers of God, calling them to action. Mad and maimed, God-touched and guilt-ridden, these Trench Pilgrim Processions have found common cause, toiling and suffering to fulfil their Pilgrimage of War.

At last, their time has come. The Book of Life has fallen silent, and now comes the world's ruin and renewal. They believe they are destined to conquer the holy city. To finish the transgression. To put an end to sin. To atone for iniquity. To bring in everlasting righteousness. To seal both vision and prophet. To anoint a most holy place to be theirs forever and ever. And they will endure any suffering, overcome any adversary – even Hell itself – to see their pilgrimage through.

This is the journey to the end of the world

THE PROCESSION OF THE SACRED AFFLICTION

"It is by their hands, locked in blessedly arthritic union around the throat of the heretic, that they are known."

The Processions of the Sacred Affliction are perhaps the most striking of Trench Pilgrim Processions, formed of the many thousands of poor souls left diseased, disenfranchised or otherwise unwanted by upstanding society. Founded by ailing refugees displaced by Beelzebub's Black Grail in the fourteenth century, the Processions of the Sacred Affliction welcome all who suffer under the Lord and who wish to earn salvation in the holy pilgrimage to the front lines. There, the otherwise open-armed Pilgrims unleash dirty, bloody violence on the forces of Hell, seeking redemption for their sins by way of taking as many of the Devil's own back from whence they came.

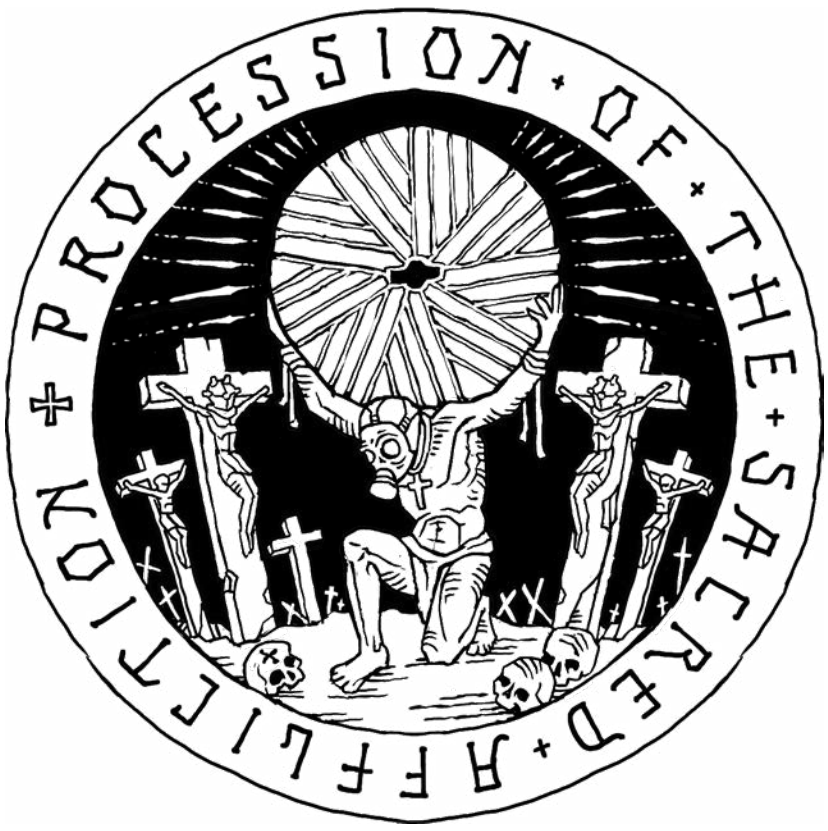
These Processions are ushered towards their ordained deliverance by the Lazarist Prophets, as agonized by affliction as they are empowered by the Lord, blessed ones who can both incense their flock into battle and see to their bandages at rest. At their backs are the Lazarist Castigators, who tend to the flock's confessions and remind those who would falter of their responsibility to each other and to the Lord. Even the Lazarist Communicants, humans divinely mutated by the consumption of the Meta-Christ's flesh, offer their muscle and might to those who return with comfort and care.

Shoulder to shoulder and voice in chorus, the Leper-Pilgrims wear their maladies with pride, for they know, despite their suffering, that God has a plan for them. With great adoration they decorate their armour with icons and votive trinkets, deflecting bullets and dulling blades with the wards of the saints. In combat, the Leper-Pilgrims fight with all the fervour of one who truly sees their salvation within reach. For, it is known that the clearest path towards Heaven for all in a Procession of the Sacred Affliction lies in the millstones they carry on their backs, each carved with their sins. The only time a Pilgrim is permitted to remove this weight is when a heretic lies defeated before them, upon which they can tie the millstone around the fallen enemy's neck. As their foes drown in the mud, the pilgrims sing hymns of praise and forgiveness through their rotten teeth, joyous in the chance to do the Lord's Will on Earth.

THE PROCESSION OF THE SACRED AFFLICTION WARBAND RULES

The Procession of the Sacred Affliction are the rusty knuckle-dusters of Christendom, specialising in brutal melee assaults whilst not being afraid to take a hit or two back. Unlike other Trench Pilgrim Warbands, the Sacred Affliction rejects the use of Iron Capirotes and consistent ranged fire support, much preferring to enact the Lord's Wrath in the heat of close combat, trading blows until they can gain the upper hand with the help of impervious armour and heavy weapons. When their opponent finally falters and is knocked down, the Sacred Affliction have additional bonuses to help them deal the finishing blow to vulnerable enemies. It is this, combined with the increased access to healing abilities, that makes even the humble Leper-Pilgrim able to hold their own against a more elite or trained foe.

However, much of the Procession's resilience comes from their numbers, and healing abilities only work if there is a body left to heal. An isolated Pilgrim can be picked off, so it's crucial to keep your models in cover and in the good company of elites and musicians to ensure they reach enemy lines before falling to heavier fire.



STRENGTHS

- Fuelled by Faith: The Procession of the Sacred Affliction are a resilient bunch. Imbued with faith in the Lord and protected by icons of His splendour, even the lowliest Leper-Pilgrim can suffer the most devastating wounds and remain in the fight. Combine this with the healing prayers of the Lazarist Prophet, the regenerative properties of the Stigmatic Nun and the ability for Leper-Pilgrims to miraculously resurrect themselves once killed, and you have a Warband that is hard to keep down.

- Holy Fire: The Procession relishes the chance to bathe No Man's Land in the Lord's cleansing flame. Whether it be from improvised Flamethrowers, Incendiary Ammunition or the ever-reliable Molotov Cocktail, the Sacred Affliction has a lot of access to weapons with the FIRE Keyword. Helpfully, these weapons also often have ways to ignore the enemy's armour, maximising their damage.

- Drown them in Mud: If there is one thing a Procession Warband is known for, it's hitting hard and fast in melee. Good examples of this include the uninhibited access to the extremely lethal Anti-Tank Hammers, as well as the Zealot Strength upgrade letting your Leper-Pilgrims wield HEAVY Weapons without penalties. However, the crowning ability of the Procession is Punishing Millstones, where the Warband can smite those that have been knocked down by their relentless assault, crushing them into the mud with the heavy stones they carry around their necks.

WEAKNESSES

- Limited Armoury: Warbands of the Procession are not an organised military force. This doesn't stop them from taking to the frontlines with comparable power, but it does mean they don't have as much access to standard supplies due to not being an official part of New Antioch's army. Ranged firepower is lacking, meaning that the Procession have to expose themselves to the firepower of their enemies as they close in for the righteous kill.
- Risky Tactics: Many of the more powerful abilities available to the Procession also involve an element of risk. The Anti-Tank Hammer can cause damage to its user, the powerful Martyrdom Device is very likely to kill the Ecclesiastic Prisoner who detonates it, and the Morale boosting abilities of the Lazarist Castigator rely on them harming their allies in order to keep their faith.

PROCESSION OF THE SACRED AFFLICTION SPECIAL RULES

The following special rules apply to a Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband, including any Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Variants:

- Punishing Millstones: Add +1 INJURY DICE for Melee Attacks made by models from a Procession of the Sacred Affliction if the target is Down. Note that this bonus is in addition to the +1 Injury Dice modifier that normally applies when a target is Down, giving a total of +2 INJURY DICE to the roll.

- Wrath of God: Up to 1 Lazarist Castigator, Leper-Pilgrim, or Martyr Penitent can have the Wrath of God special rule at a cost of 15 . BLOOD MARKERS are never placed next to a model with the Wrath of God special rule, and it has the NEGATE FEAR Keyword. It cannot be Broken on the Wheel by an Anchorite Shrine. A model with the Wrath of God special rule cannot have Ranged Weapons or Armour (it can have a Shield). In addition, change the base size of the model to 32mm.

- Mercenaries: The Procession of the Sacred Affliction can use any Faithful Mercenaries that can be taken by PILGRIM Warbands.

Armoury Tables

Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warbands can have the following Battlekit. PROCESSION OF THE SACRED AFFLICTION BATTLEKIT

The following Battlekit items are unique to Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warbands. Rules for all other items are in the Battlekit section of the Trench Crusade Rulebook.

Bells of Warding | 2 ✵ | ELITE only, Limit: 1

In many places the afflicted are required to announce their presence and status by ringing bells. In a Procession of the SacredAffliction warband, those who join have their bells gathered together and rung by a chosen member, the clangour declaring their unity and serving as a helpful guide to those of them blessed enough to be without sight.

Type	Range	Keywords
Equipment	–	HELD, LEADER

✵ Gathering Call: Add +1 DICE to Risky Success Rolls for friendly models that are taking a Dash ACTION and are within 4" of one or more models with Bells of Warding or a Musical Instrument.

Blessed Millstone | 5 | Leper-Pilgrims only, Limit: 2

Followers of the Procession of the Sacred Affliction carry weighty millstones as reminders of their sins. The most sinful in their past lives cry out for the Blessed Millstone, a consecrated object carved from the heaviest available stone, laden with the prayers and confessions of penitent souls.

Type	Range	Keywords
Equipment	–	–

❉ Weighted with Sin: Subtract 1" from the Movement Characteristic of a model with a Blessed Millstone, but add +2 INJURY DICE because of the Crushing Millstones special rule instead of the usual +1 INJURY DICE. If the model takes an enemy Out of Action with a Melee Attack they can, at the option of the player, be freed of the crushing weight of the Blessed Millstone, regaining their full Movement Characteristic plus 1" additional (the freedom of a lightened soul), and using the Punishing Millstones special rule normally from then on. After the battle you can return the Blessed Millstone to the model or bestow it on a different model in the Warband.

Great Flail/Scourge | 15 | Limit: 3

The Procession of the Sacred Affliction favour using the symbolic weight of their sins to educate Heretics, wielding flails made of stones bound with rope of woven hemp with ecstatic gusto.

Type	Range	Keywords
2-Handed	Melee	+1 DICE, +1 INJURY DICE, CUMBERSOME, HEAVY

Holy Icon Armour | 30

This suit of armour is made of blessed icons and scripture text within decorative scrollwork, written with the blood of saints.

Type	Range	Keywords
Armour	–	-1 INJURY MODIFIER, IMPERVIOUS

Penitent's Phylactery | 12 | Limit: 2

A small box of either leather or sandalwood strapped to the Faithful's arm or head. It contains dried wafers of the blessed sores gleaned from those who bear the Sacred Affliction itself. Through divine auspice the bearer's blows will afflict the Fallen with the physical import of their sins.

Type	Range	Keywords
Equipment	–	–

✠ Repudiation of Sin: When a model with a Penitent's Phylactery makes a Melee Attack that targets a model with the HERETIC, THE COURT or BLACK GRAIL Keyword, place 1 extra BLOOD MARKER next to the target model after making the Injury Roll (even if the Injury Roll has No Effect).

Punt Gun | 20 | Limit: 1

The Punt Gun is an enormous shotgun loaded with as much as 25 ounces of shot. It can be loaded with a risky amount of powder and square shot to cause widespread damage and destruction.

Type	Range	Keywords
2-Handed	18”	+1 DICE, +1 INJURY DICE, HEAVY, SHOTGUN, SHRAPNEL

- Overcharge: Before making a Ranged Attack with a model armed with a Punt Gun, you can say that the model will Overcharge the weapon. To do so, the model has to either have the STRONG Keyword or be in base-to-base contact with a friendly model. An Overcharged Ranged Attack gains the BLAST 3” and RELOAD Keywords. After an Overcharged attack has been carried out, place 1 BLOOD MARKER next to the model that made the attack, and its Activation immediately ends.

Ragged Vestments | 10

The ragged clothes of penitents mark those who have wandered far across God’s creation. Amidst the Procession, such wrappings signify who will be undaunted by high precipices or leaps of faith.

Type	Range	Keywords
Armour	–	–

- Leap of Faith: Add +1 DICE to Risky Success Roll whenever a model with Ragged Vestments Climbs, Jumps, or makes a Diving Charge, or takes a Dash ACTION, as long as the model does not have a Shield, or any Weapons with the HEAVY Keyword.

Warcross | 5

A four-pronged throwing weapon in the shape of a cross, each Warcross is engraved with prayers that guide it on an unerring path.

Type	Range	Keywords
Grenade	8”	ASSAULT, IGNORE LONG RANGE

1 Lazarist Prophet

Cost: 90

A Sacred Affliction Warband must include 1 Lazarist Prophet.

The Lazarist Prophets who come to lead Processions of the Sacred Affliction are not motivated by desire or their own sense of destiny. None that are called "Father" by the afflicted ever set themselves on such a path. Whoever the prophet might once have been, the turn of the Rota Fortunae, the wheel of fortune, and God's Will have wrought their works on them most thoroughly, afflicting them in body and mind. Only once they have shed all trace of Earthly treasures and all Pride in their old existence do they truly perceive and proselytise on the teachings of Saint Lazarus: of God's unending love and His power over death, and how the Lord brings new life even when all hope seems lost.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	+2 DICE	+2 DICE	0	32mm

Battlekit

A Lazarist Prophet can have any Battlekit from the Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Armoury Tables.

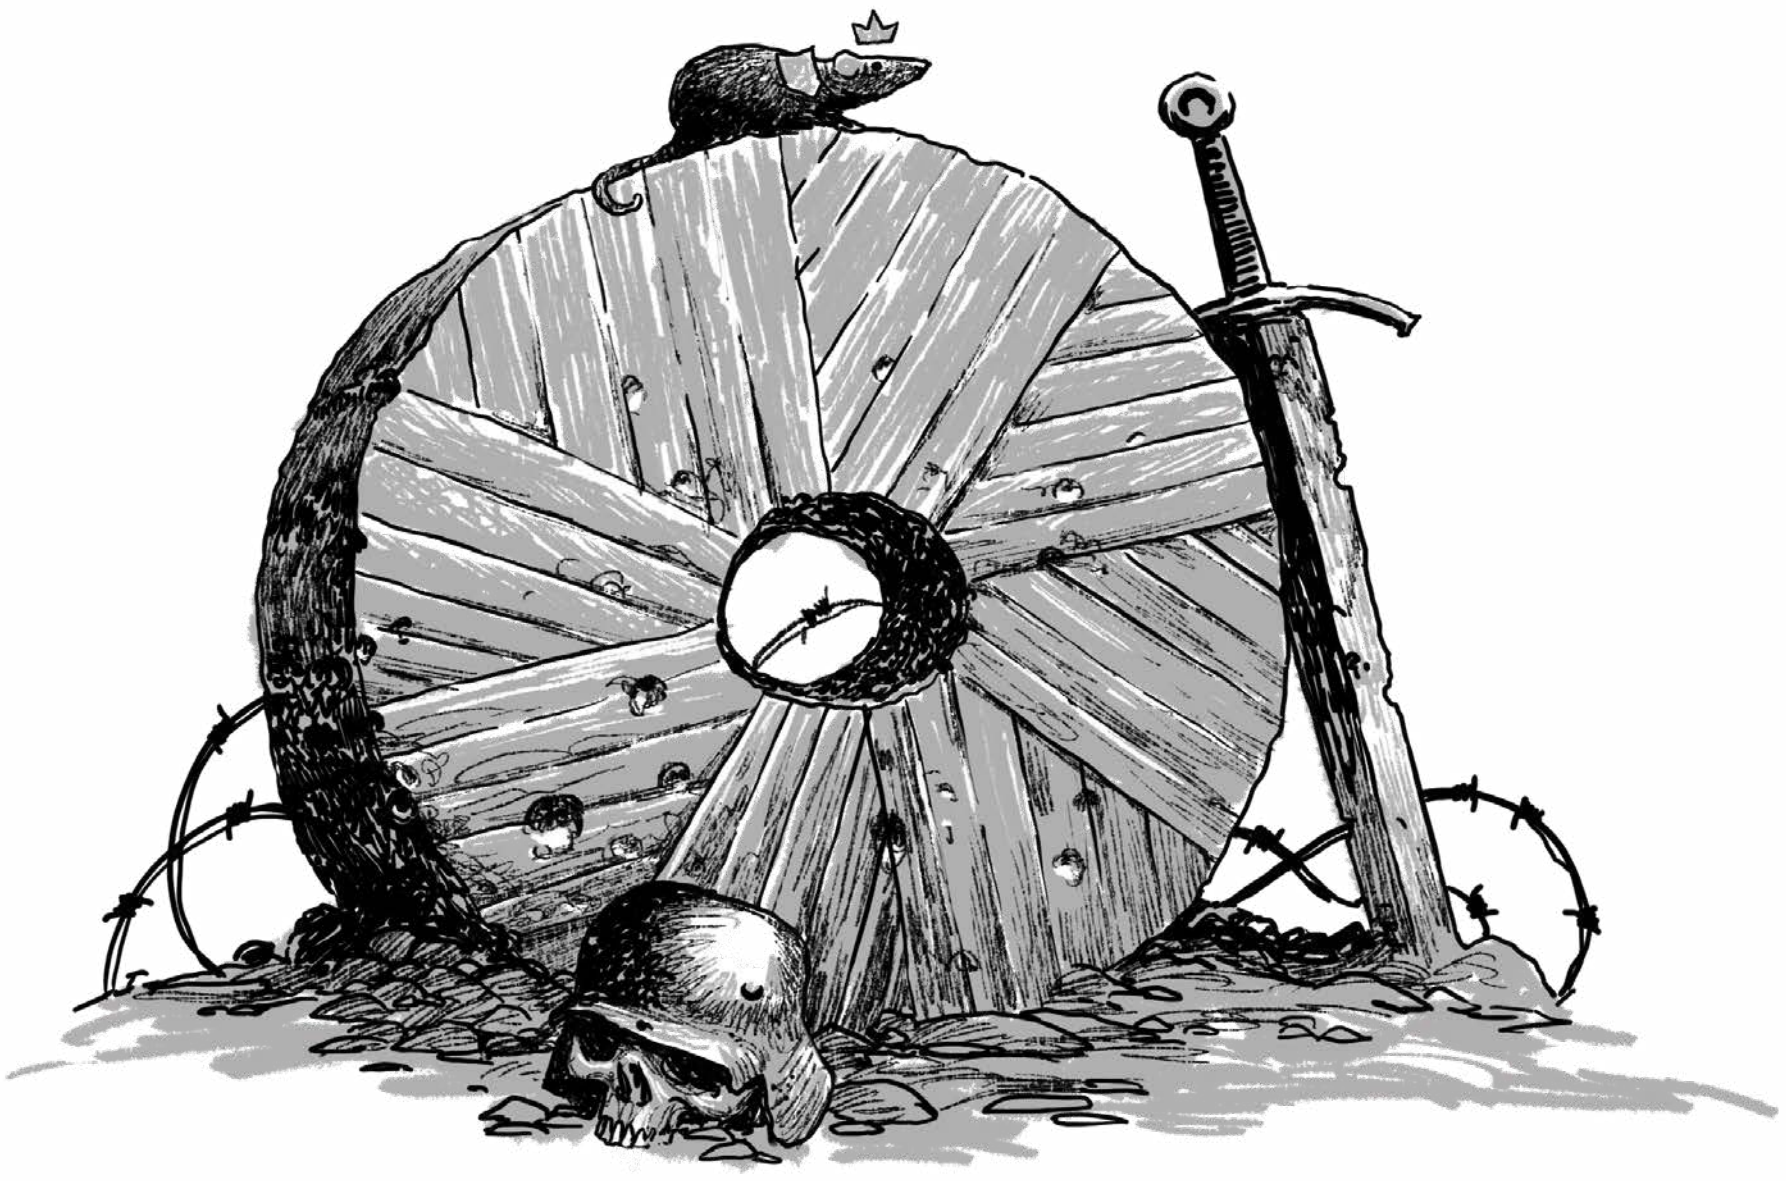
Abilities

✠ Gift of the Sacrament ACTION: When you Activate a Lazarist Prophet they can take a Gift of the Sacrament ACTION as part of the Activation. If they do so, take a Success Roll for the model. If the roll is a Failure, nothing happens. If the roll is a Success, remove 1 BLOOD or 1 INFECTION MARKER from a friendly model within 6" of the Lazarist Prophet. If the roll is a Critical Success, remove either 3 BLOOD or 3 INFECTION MARKERS from a friendly model within 6" of the Lazarist Prophet instead of only 1. The Lazarist Prophet can use this ACTION to heal themselves.

Abilities

- Loudspeakers ACTION: A Lazarist Prophet can take a Loudspeakers ACTION. If they do so, take a Risky Success Roll for the model and add +2 DICE to the roll. If the roll is a Failure, the Lazarist Prophet's Activation ends immediately. If the roll is a Success or Critical Success, you can move all friendly models within 8" of the Lazarist Prophet up to 3". They must end the move as close as possible to the nearest enemy model that was visible to them at the start of the move. This move can be used to bring a model within 1" of an enemy model, in which case the model counts as charging. If no enemy models are visible, they can move normally.
- Memento Mori: The first time the Lazarist Prophet suffers an Out of Action result on the Injury Table, it is treated as a No Effect result instead. A Lazarist Prophet cannot have the TOUGH Keyword.

Keywords PILGRIM, ELITE, LEADER



0-1 Lazarist Communicant Cost: 100

A Communicant is a rare sight in most Processions of the Sacred Affliction, for their nature typically decrees that they either recover fully from wounds or are slain by them. They are still God's creatures, however, and even when divinely transformed the sinful flesh of man can receive harm or taint that even Christ's communion cannot heal. More commonly, Communicants may lose their way in mundane matters, forgetting to eat, drink or care for themselves for long stretches of time, particularly if left alone without the care of others when their compatriots are slain. In time these hapless unfortunates may find their way to the Processions in the hope that they can be healed, or at least find new purpose in their aimless wandering. Those who have lost their Communicant crosses must accept a modified helm in its place, with a faceplate that has spikes through the eyeholes.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	–3 DICE	+2 DICE	0	40mm

Battlekit — A Lazarist Communicant has a Communicant Cross or Helm (▸ see below). The Lazarist Communicant can also have any Battlekit from the Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Armoury Tables except for Martyrdom Pills.

Abilities

Bodyguard: If a friendly PILGRIM model within 1" of a Lazarist Communicant is hit by a Ranged Attack or Melee Attack, you can say that the Lazarist Communicant will take the hit. If you do so, make an Injury Roll for the Lazarist Communicant instead of the original target. This ability cannot be used against attacks that have the BLAST Keyword.

Abilities continued

The Communicant Cross or Helm: A Lazarist Communicant counts as having the following pieces of Equipment at no cost in : Iron Capirote; Gas Mask.

0 - 1 Lazarist Castigator Cost: 50

Lazarist Castigators take on the role of adjudicator in a Procession of the Sacred Affliction. Their ear takes confession, their gaze judges all, and their hand weighs whether pilgrims carry the commensurate load for their personal burden of sin. If it is too great the Castigator will see that it is lightened, but if it is too little the Castigator will assign an appropriate additional weight in stones for the sinner to carry slung about their neck. In battle the Castigator often reminds pilgrims of their duty, both to God and to one another, to overcome their travails and cast aside their burdens around the necks of God's enemies.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	+1 DICE	+1 DICE	0	32mm

Battlekit

A Lazarist Castigator can have any Battlekit from the Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Armoury Tables.

Abilities

❉ Enforced Orthodoxy ACTION: A Lazarist Castigator can take an Enforced Orthodoxy ACTION. If they do so, take a Risky Success Roll for the model and add +1 DICE to the roll. If the roll is a Failure, the Lazarist Castigator's Activation ends immediately. If the roll is a Success or Critical Success, all friendly models that are within 8" of a Lazarist Castigator that are Down immediately stand back up at no cost to their movement.

Abilities

- Whip of God: When a Lazarist Castigator makes a Melee Attack they can target a friendly model that is within 1" instead of an enemy model, and can add -1 INJURY DICE to the Injury Roll if they do so. Set aside a D6 each time a Lazarist Castigator attacks a friendly model and takes them Out of Action with a Melee Attack. The next time the Lazarist Castigator's Warband is forced to take a Morale Check, each D6 that was put aside adds +1 DICE to the roll and is then discarded.

- Zealot Strength: A Lazarist Castigator can have the STRONG Keyword at a cost of +5 .

Keywords PILGRIM, ELITE

Leper-Pilgrims

Cost: 30

Leper-Pilgrims are drawn from all peoples of the Faith and all walks of life. They are unified by their Faith in God and in their fellow pilgrims to jointly bear the burden of their afflictions and follow the path the Lord has made for them. The time for redemption is now, not tomorrow.

Battlekit — A Leper-Pilgrim can have any Battlekit from Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Armoury Tables.

Abilities

- Resurrection: If a Leper Pilgrim is killed after a game (▸ see the Campaign Rules in the Trench Crusade Rulebook), they can be resurrected as a Martyr Penitent with the Martyr Penitent Profile for a cost of 45 . Add -1 INJURY DICE to Injury Rolls for a Martyr Penitent. A Martyr Penitent keeps their Battlekit and Zealot Strength if the ability was purchased, but loses any Battle Scars, Experience, and Advancements. Martyrdom Pills have no effect on a Martyr Penitent model.
- Zealot Strength: When you add a Leper-Pilgrim or Martyr Penitent to your Warband you can purchase the STRONG Keyword for them for 5 . You cannot have a total of more than 3 models with Zealot Strength in your Warband at any one time. Models with Zealot Strength increase their base size to 32mm.

Keywords — PILGRIM

0-4 Stigmatic Nuns

Cost: 60

Several orders of Stigmatic Nun have ties to the Processions – some sisterhoods are even blessed with the Sacred Affliction themselves. They often join Processions on long pilgrimages and share their burdens along the road. Their keen blades and martial spirit are greatly welcomed in battle.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
8”/Infantry	+1 DICE	+1 DICE	0	25mm

Battlekit A Stigmatic Nun can have Battlekit from the Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband Armoury Table. The only Ranged Weapons they can have are Automatic Pistols and Pistols, and the only Grenades they can have are Warcrosses. No restrictions apply to any other types of Battlekit.

Abilities

- Agile: Add +1 DICE to the Risky Success Roll when a Stigmatic Nun Climbs, Jumps, or makes a Diving Charge, or takes a Dash ACTION.
- Blessed Stigmata: Each time you remove a BLOOD MARKER from a Stigmatic Nun due to the REGENERATE 1 Keyword, place 1 BLESSING MARKER next to the Stigmatic Nun.

Keywords PILGRIM, REGENERATE 1

Ecclesiastic Prisoners — Cost: 20

Some are found to be beyond the gift of God's love or redemption through toil and burden, so they seek a final sacrifice in the hope it can somehow cleanse their tarnished soul. A sad moment it may be for their Procession to have failed one of their number so, but a joyous hope that the Prisoner's spiritual unburdening can at least erase the burdens of Heretic souls in the process. Particularly determined Prisoners of the Sacred Affliction are permitted to request a minenhelm in place of the usual martyrdom device, ensuring that their last act of redemption will be truly and absolutely final.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	–	-1 DICE	0	25mm

Battlekit Up to 4 Ecclesiastic Prisoners can have a Martyrdom Device for 25 ⓜ (▸ see below). Ecclesiastic Prisoners that have a Martyrdom Device can upgrade it to a Minenhelm for 10 ⓜ. They cannot have any other Battlekit.

Abilities

- Awaited: If an Ecclesiastic Prisoner is taken Out of Action when their Martyrdom Device is triggered, do not count this towards the number of models from the Warband that have been taken Out of Action for Morale Checks.
- Feeble Flailing: An Ecclesiastic Prisoner can make a Melee Attack even though it does not have a Melee Weapon. If it does so, add -1 DICE to the Success Roll.
- Mad Dash: Add +1 DICE to the Risky Success Roll for an Ecclesiastic Prisoner that is taking a Dash ACTION.

Keywords PILGRIM

Martyrdom Device

Type	Range	Keywords
Equipment	–	BLAST 3", SHRAPNEL

- Detonate ACTION: An Ecclesiastic Prisoner with a Martyrdom Device can take a Detonate ACTION. If they do so, the Martyrdom Device detonates and cannot be used again. When a Martyrdom Device detonates, all models (friend or foe) within 3" of the Ecclesiastic Prisoner taking the Detonate ACTION and in its Line of Sight are hit by a Ranged Attack with the SHRAPNEL Keyword. Add +1 INJURY DICE to the Injury Rolls for models that are within 1" of the Ecclesiastic Prisoner taking the Detonate ACTION.
- Seek Martyrdom: When an Ecclesiastic Prisoner takes a Detonate ACTION, make an Injury Roll for the Ecclesiastic Prisoner by rolling 4D6 and adding all 4 dice together. If an Ecclesiastic Prisoner detonates their Martyrdom Device and survives the game, you must either buy them a new Martyrdom Device for 25 ⓜ, or use them without one.

Minenhelm

- Last Act: Add +1 INJURY DICE to the Injury Rolls for models that are within 1" of an Ecclesiastic Prisoner with a Minenhelm when it takes a Detonate ACTION (for a total of +2 INJURY DICE instead of +1). Ecclesiastic Prisoners that have a Minenhelm are automatically killed when their Martyrdom Device detonates.
- Minenhelm Slam: An Ecclesiastic Prisoner that has a Minenhelm can make a Melee Attack even though they do not have a Melee Weapon.

0-1 Anchorite Shrine

Cost: 140

In recognition of their ultimate devotion, Anchorite Shrines hold special significance for Processions. The pilot-monk interred within has taken on the burden of imprisonment inside an unfeeling machine, not only for their own soul's sake, but for the sake of all the Faithful everywhere. As such they are celebrated members, often brightly garlanded and covered with prayers, talismans and keepsakes from the pilgrims. Where the path of an Anchorite Shrine may ultimately lead, none but the Almighty can say, but for however long an Anchorite Shrine may stay with a Procession it is beloved by all.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	–	+2 DICE	-3	60mm

Battlekit An Anchorite Shrine has a Bonebreaker Mace and a Catherine Wheel (▸ see below). These weapons are built into the Anchorite Shrine and cannot be removed or lost over the course of a campaign for any reason. The Shrine cannot have any other Battlekit.

Abilities

✠ Broken on the Wheel: At the start of each game, before deployment, you can say that one Leper-Pilgrim or Ecclesiastic Prisoner will be broken on the wheel to show their piety and devotion. The model you choose is permanently removed from your Warband, but in a campaign you can redistribute their Battlekit to other models that would be allowed to have it in the following Quartermaster Step. The Anchorite Shrine then shatters the bones of the volunteer and carries the broken victim to battle upon its great wheel. Injuries that would be inflicted on the Anchorite Shrine are instead inflicted on its unfortunate victim, until the victim finally passes away. This is represented by the following special rules, which apply to the Anchorite Shrine until it suffers an Out of Action result on the Injury Table:

Abilities

- It has an Armour Characteristic of 0 and does not have the NEGATE SHRAPNEL and TOUGH Keywords.
- It treats Down results as Minor Hit results.
- The first time the Anchorite Shrine suffers an Out of Action result on the Injury Table, it is treated as a No Effect result. When this happens, any BLOOD MARKERS on the Anchorite Shire are removed, and from then on these special rules no longer apply to the model.
- Symphony of Slaughter: An Anchorite Shrine is armed with two 1-Handed Melee Weapons (the Catherine Wheel and a Bonebreaker Mace). When it makes a Melee Attack, it can either attack once using either its Catherine Wheel or the Bonebreaker Mace, or twice, first with the Catherine Wheel and second with its Bonebreaker Mace (the Off-Hand Weapon modifier applies to the attack made with the Bonebreaker Mace). Note that both Weapons have the RISKY Keyword, which means that the Anchorite Shrine's Activation ends immediately if the Success Roll for an attack made with either weapon is a Failure.

THE KNIGHTS OF SAINT LAZARUS

The parable of Lazarus has been interpreted in many ways: while depicted as a beggar, scholars speculate whether in a former life Lazarus began as a noble, a criminal, a teacher, or even a Roman centurion. The Knights of Saint Lazarus were not canonically recognised as a hospitaller and military order of chivalry under the rules of Saint Augustine until the papal bull of Pope Alexander IV in 1255, even though the followers of Saint Lazarus had been active for several centuries by that time. They were primarily centred on their Christian charism (an exceptional gift from the Holy Spirit) of caring for those afflicted with leprosy, but knights of the Order of Saint Lazarus notably fought in the Year of the Three Battles in 1101. After the fall of Acre, the Knights became scattered, with various bands eventually settling in Antioch (later New Antioch), Cyprus, France, and Italy. As the Great War spread they broadened their charism to include all those beset by affliction through war, disease or privation. Wandering warbands of these knights can be seen on many battlefronts, often almost indistinguishable from the larger Processions they give rise to. To the uncouth they are often referred to as Leper-Knights or Lazarists. Although generally well-schooled in the arts of modern warfare, the Knights of Saint Lazarus continue to forbid the use of Sniper Rifles in their warbands, viewing them as cowardly and un-Christian.

THE KNIGHTS OF SAINT LAZARUS SPECIAL RULES

The following special rules apply to a Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband:

- Sacred Code: A Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband must include 1-6 Stigmatic Nuns. In addition, it cannot include Lazarist Communicants or Lazarist Castigators, and models in this Warband cannot voluntarily take a Retreat ACTION.

- Knightly Order: A Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband must include 1-3 Leper-Knights. The Leper-Knights use the Lazarist Castigator Warband entry but must wear a suit of Armour, have a Melee Characteristic of +2 DICE, and replace the Whip of God Ability with the Knightly Code Ability.

  - Knightly Code: When a Leper-Knight makes a Melee Attack that takes an enemy model Out of Action, you can remove 1 BLOOD MARKER from the Leper-Knight or a friendly model within 3" of the Leper-Knight. If the enemy model had the ELITE Keyword, you can place 1 BLESSING MARKER beside the Leper-Knight instead of removing a BLOOD MARKER.

- Blessed Armoury: Automatic Pistols cost 15 and Great Swords cost 7 for a Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband. In addition, models in a Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband cannot have Ranged Weapons with a cost of more than 15 or a cost in .

- Followers of Saint Lazarus: A Knights of Saint Lazarus Warband may have a Temporal Lord as their Patron in addition to the standard options to choose from.

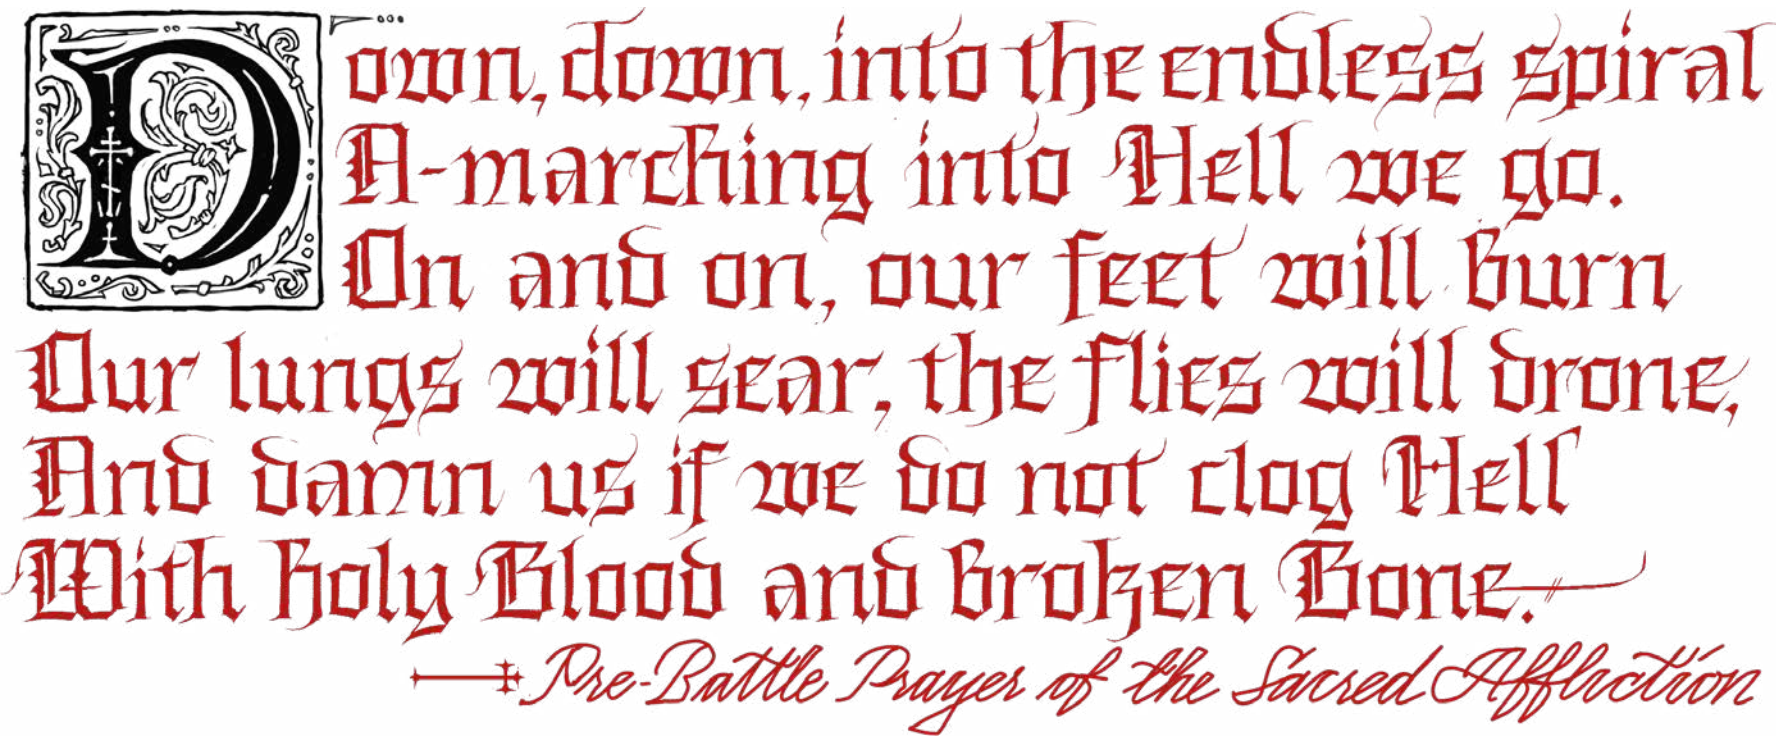
PROCESSION OF THE BLESSED FLOCK

During especially brutal campaigns, and particularly in the aftermath of the bloodiest battles, Lazarist Castigators will move among the dead seeking lost Communicants. They find those who have survived the deaths of their companions, been rendered insensible by artillery, or become trapped under piles of bodies or debris, and gather them together into a Procession. Communicants will often recover their wits and direction with time and care, but until they do the Lazarist Castigators remain on hand to carefully guide the Communicants' focus. It is also not uncommon for a Blessed Flock to accumulate a large number of Ecclesiastic Prisoners seeking redemption for their sins.



PROCESSION OF THE BLESSED FLOCK SPECIAL RULES

The following special rules apply to a Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband:

- Shepherds and Lambs: A Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband may include 1-3 Lazarist Castigators and 1-6 Lazarist Communicants. One Lazarist Castigator must be taken for each 2 Lazarist Communicants or part thereof (e.g. 3 Lazarist Communicants would need 2 Lazarist Castigators to watch over them). Lazarist Communicants in a Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband do not have the ELITE Keyword, but their cost remains the same.

- Guidance: If a friendly Lazarist Communicant Activates whilst not standing within 6" of a friendly Lazarist Castigator, all Success Rolls it takes during that Activation become Risky Success Rolls (there is no additional effect if they are Risky Success Rolls already).

- Dishevelled Procession: A Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband can only have 0-2 Stigmatic Nuns, and cannot include Anchorite Shrines or Leper-Pilgrims.

- Flagellant Flock: Ecclesiastic Prisoners in a Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband have a Ranged Characteristic of -1 DICE at no additional cost in . In addition, Ecclesiastic Prisoners in a Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband can purchase Muskets, Blunderbusses, Warcrosses, Flails/Scourges, Ragged Vestments, and Trench Shields from the Procession of the Sacred Affliction Armoury Table.

- Scavenged Armoury: A Procession of the Blessed Flock Warband cannot have Automatic Pistols, Semi-Automatic Rifles, Sniper Rifles, Submachine Guns, Incendiary Grenades, or Reinforced Armour.

SAMPLE LISTS

Sample lists are meant to get you into the fight quickly, providing fun and thematic lists tailored to the Warband's rules. They also correspond to the two ways you can assemble each model in this kit. However, they are only a suggestion. You can (and should) build your models and warband however you see fit!

The Parade of His Holy Fire

The Parade of His Holy Fire are a warband held in high regard by their fellow Trench Pilgrims. Their leader, Lazarist Prophet Namaan Purity-in-Fire, was once an Ecclesiastic Prisoner by the name of To-Be-Cleansed-In-Holy-Fire, who forged his legend during the Battle of Three Columns facing the feral Path of the Beast when nought but a handful of Leper-Pilgrims and a colossal Larval Beast Lord remained. Called a sinner for deserting his path as a Kohen priest, To-Be-Cleansed sought absolution through sacrifice by diving into the maw of the beast and triggering his martyrdom device, giving reality to his persistent dream of being a living flame burning the heart of a devil. However, when the smoke cleared and the beast's skull ceased raining from above, To-Be-Cleansed stood unharmed amidst the charnel ruins. Before the would-be martyr could speak, exaltations of 'He is cleansed!' sang from his allies' throats, who fell prostrate before both the bewildered man and the Lord above. The remnants of the Parade of His Holy Fire regrouped under the now renamed Namaan Purity-in-Fire, soon earning a reputation for throwing themselves into - and winning - conflicts that even other Processions would deem pointless martyrdom. Most recently, Namaan answered the call of Blessed Bartolomeo to venture to the Carcass Front in search of the demonic Leviathan. Despite the fervour of Namaan's sermons, the Lazarist Prophet was driven by a deeper desire; the dreams of his flaming body bringing the Lord's wrath inside a devil did not cease, and he believes his destiny lies within the jaws of Leviathan.

God's Chosen Proclamation

This Sample List is designed to withstand whatever oppressive offence your enemy can throw at you by maximising protection and healing. The Prophet Namaan wears the nigh impregnable Holy Icon Armour, ignoring the anti-armour properties of enemy weaponry. Though his damage output is lower than in the Purge it with Fire Proclamation, the Prophet can function as a powerful healing and mobility support piece for the rest of the Warband – two roles that are further empowered by the Medi-kit of the Stigmatic Nun Witness and the Musical Instrument of Leper-Pilgrim Joachim. Leper-Pilgrim Tekle equips a Trench Shield to improve his survival, and can act as a living shield to protect his companions or to stay on objectives in scenarios that have them. Leper-Pilgrim Praise-Him's Flamethrower and Ecclesiastic Prisoner Sinner's Martyrdom Device can deliver reliable damage, especially when bolstered by the highly lethal ranged firepower of the Lazarist Castigator's Punt Gun. Finally, Leper-Pilgrim Aphrah, with both the Wrath of God upgrade and a Holy Icon Shield, makes for an exceptional roadblock for your enemies, denying them the ability to use BLOOD MARKERS or armour piercing weapons to bring him low.

Purge it with Fire Proclamation

The Purge it with Fire Proclamation Sample List represents when a single-minded zeal for immolation arrests the hearts of the Parade of His Holy Fire, where the output of damage comes often at the expense of each model's survivability. The perfect example of this is the Anti-Tank Hammer wielded by both the Lazarist Prophet Namaan and the Stigmatic Nun Witness. Anti-Tank Hammers ignore enemy armour and are extremely lethal, yet deal the attacker a Blood Marker in the resulting explosion. Namaan backs his melee power with a Semi-Automatic Rifle and a Molotov Cocktail because every Pilgrim in this list (excluding Ecclesiastic Prisoner Sinner) has some weapon with the FIRE Keyword. To this end, both Leper-Pilgrim Abraham and Praise-Him bring automatically hitting, armour-ignoring Flamethrowers to roast their enemies alive. Armour is at a minimum in the Purge it with Fire Proclamation, with only Standard Armour appearing on both the Lazarist Prophet and Lazarist Castigator, who additionally sports a brutal Great Axe and a rather fetching hat. Killing the enemy first is the name of the game for this Sample List, often getting close enough to unleash explosive bombardments of Molotov Cocktails before finishing the job in melee.
